28th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" - Lk 17:17-18

Entonces dijo Jesús: "¿No eran diez los que quedaron limpios? ¿Dónde están los otros nueve? ¿No ha habido nadie, fuera de este extranjero, que volviera para dar gloria a Dios?" - Lc 17, 17-18

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Luke 17:11-19

Dorothy Day, the great Catholic activist, doubted God's existence. At least in her early adult years. But something changed when after giving birth to her daughter, she experienced an overwhelming gratitude. She later described how, as she held her daughter, the only appropriate response was a kind of unlimited gratitude. She had done nothing to deserve such a gift — this tiny, miraculous life — but there she was, flooded with gratitude, completely undone by the love of such a Giver.

Something similar occurs in Luke 17:19 when Jesus tells a healed leper, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you." This man had already received physical healing through his faith. But the moment of an even deeper transformation came when he turned back, fell at Jesus' feet, and gave thanks. Like Dorothy, this man's gratitude led him to encounter the Giver.

Isn't that what we want, too? Gratitude to God has the power to break our chains of sadness, bitterness, and disenchantment. It empowers us to step out of the prison of self-pity and into the reality of God's abundant love. It shifts our focus from what we lack to what we have received, from what wounds us to what heals us.

Where do we learn this? The Mass. The priest prays: "It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks." Always. Everywhere. Not just when life is easy. Not just when prayers are answered as we expect. Gratitude is not a passive feeling; it is an act of faith. In the eucharist, we remember that Christ himself has given everything for us. And in this act of gratitude, we are healed.

Gospel Meditations

Lucas 17:11-19

In our times, we talk about many things: fashion, politics, beauty, or who has the highest status in society. But what is rarely discussed is faith. For many people, this topic seems outdated. However, last Sunday and this Sunday, Jesus shows us what faith is. Today, the spirit of gratitude of a leper is praised, and that gratitude to God is born precisely from his faith. Ten were healed, but only one, the Gospel tells us, returned to give thanks: "One of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back immediately, praising God with a loud voice, and fell with his face to the ground at Jesus' feet, thanking him" (Luke 17:15-16). After this act of gratitude, a dialogue took place between Jesus and the man, and Jesus gave him an immediate response: "Get up and go; your faith has made you well" (Luke 17:19).

Saint Athanasius of Alexandria, in his Festal Letter (c. 295-373), says the following: "The Master praised the grateful spirit of one of those, but was displeased by the behavior of the nine ungrateful ones, because they did not recognize the author of their benefit. They thought more about the healing of their leprosy than about the one who had cured them. Certainly, the one who was cured heard from the Lord: 'Get up, go; your faith has saved you.' The grateful and those who praise God are like brothers, who bless their Savior for the benefits they have received from Him." Lord, give me a grateful heart!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED
Vicar General and Chancellor

Question:

I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor used in our Catholic newspaper. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer:

A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest. The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest. ©LPi
