VIVIR LA LITURGIA -
INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

La vida cristiana es una vida de espera, porque el novio se retrasa mucho. Podemos sentirnos tan cómodos esperando que, olvidamos para qué es todo esto. Así que miremos nuestras lámparas y recordemos siempre — la espera no durará para siempre.

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Pregunta de la 1ª Lectura
Según nuestro sabio judío, la sabiduría es una virtud que desea ser conocida por quienes la buscan. ¿Cómo sabe alguien que ha encontrado la sabiduría?

Pregunta de la 2ª Lectura
Pablo ofrece esperanza en la resurrección corporal de los muertos a los tesalonicenses que están de luto por la muerte de un ser querido. ¿Cómo te sostiene tu fe en Jesús en tiempos de dolor y angustia?

Pregunta del Evangelio
En la Parábola de las Diez Vírgenes, Jesús enseña a sus discípulos la importancia de planificar con anticipación lo desconocido. ¿Te consideras un pre-planificador?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 25:1-13

Be ready and prepared: that is the message for this Sunday, because neither the day nor the hour of the Lord's arrival is known. Showing wisdom and prudence signifies maturity in life. The parable of the ten virgins, told by Jesus, demonstrates both dimensions: the human and the divine. “The foolish ones took their lamps as they were, without taking any extra oil with them. The wise ones, on the other hand, took flasks of oil along with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep” (Matthew 25:3-5). This means that, whether we are attentive, asleep, or awake, God collaborates in our plans.

We cannot stop time; the best thing is to be ready, behaving appropriately, feeding our own lamp with faith and wisdom, and receiving the sacraments, especially Reconciliation and the Eucharist. God provides wisdom if we earnestly seek to nourish ourselves with it. “She goes out to meet those who want to know her; he who rises early for her will hardly have to exert himself: he will find her sitting at his door” (Wisdom 6:13-15). What fills the lamp of my life? What kind of oil does it contain? Are my actions and behavior in accordance with the Gospel? It's all about seeing how my intimacy with God is, seeing how I walk in the sense of charity and justice with others. “At the evening of life, we will be judged on love” (Saint John of the Cross).

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Mateo 25:1-13

Estén listos y preparados: es el mensaje de este domingo, porque no se sabe ni el día ni la hora en que llega el Señor. Mostrar sabiduría y prudencia significa madurez en la vida. La parábola de las diez jóvenes, narrada por Jesús, demuestra ambas dimensiones: la humana y la divina. “Las descuidadas tomaron sus lámparas como estaban, sin llevar más aceite consigo. Las precavidas, en cambio, junto con las lámparas, llevaron sus botellas de aceite. Como el novio se demoraba en llegar, se adormecieron todas y, al fin, se quedaron dormidas” (Mateo 25:3-5). Esto significa que, estemos atentos, dormidos o despiertos, Dios colabora en nuestros proyectos.

No podemos detener el tiempo; lo mejor es estar listos, llevando un comportamiento adecuado, alimentando nuestra propia lámpara con la fe y la sensatez, acudiendo a los sacramentos, sobre todo a la Reconciliación y la Eucaristía. Dios provee la sabiduría si buscamos con ahínco alimentarnos de ella. “Sale al encuentro de los que la quieren conocer; el que por ella se levantó temprano casi no tendrá que esforzarse: la hallará sentada a su puerta” (Sabiduría 6:13-15). ¿De qué está llena la lámpara de mi vida? ¿Qué tipo de aceite tiene? ¿Mis actos y comportamiento están de acuerdo con el Evangelio? Todo se trata de ver cómo va mi intimidad con Dios, de ver cómo ando en el sentido de la caridad y la justicia con los demás. “Al atardecer de la vida, seremos examinados en el amor” (San Juan de la Cruz).

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Lighting Candles in Church

Question:

Why do Catholics light candles in church?

Answer:

Candles have been part of the Church's worship from the earliest times. In the days before electricity, candles and oil lamps were the ways that people lighted buildings. Even today, we often still depend on candles during power outages, relying on their flickering flames to bring light into the dark.

Like our ancestors, we also light candles on special occasions. Think about a festive family meal or a romantic dinner for two — there will often be candles on the table, special objects for a special event. We light candles on birthday cakes and carry them in processions. We also place candles at makeshift memorials that appear when there has been an accident or act of violence. In these moments, their light casts aside a different kind of darkness — the darkness of grief, fear, and death.

The custom of the early Christians lighting candles and lamps at the tombs of the martyrs gave way to the practice of having candles at Mass, honoring the sacredness of the celebration.

As Christians decorated their worship spaces with statues and icons, they would burn candles in front of sacred images and the relics of the saints, basically "shining a light" on what they held to be sacred. When pilgrims would visit these shrines, they would often bring candles to light before the image or relic. These candles came to be a symbol of the person, and their prayer and the burning these candles came to be understood as an extension and continuation of the prayer that was offered. What began as a practical way to provide light has come to be a symbol of the hopes, desires, loves, losses, fears, and faith of everyday Christians offering their prayers to God and his saints.
