GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 25:14-30

A friend once took his young adult son to the casino for his birthday. He handed him $100 and said, “Let’s have a great time.” The son, a graduate student with limited money, quietly pocketed the money and refused to play. “I don’t want to lose it,” he said. But he missed the point: the money was not really his to pocket; it was his father’s invitation to share an experience together.

God sees our gifts a bit like this. In Jesus’ parable, a servant buries his master’s talent and explains: “Master, I knew you were a demanding person...so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground” (Matthew 25:24-25). The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant’s fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response. No love, no risk. No risk, no relationship.

How easily we fall into this trap! We treat God’s gifts as fragile possessions rather than invitations. We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master’s goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.

So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Mateo 25:14-30

Para poder ejercer una carrera o un trabajo, se deben tener las habilidades necesarias para realizarlo. De otra manera, se fracasa en los intentos. El Evangelio de hoy nos presenta otra parábola donde se ponen a prueba los talentos o dones de la persona.“Un hombre estaba a punto de partir a tierras lejanas y reunió a sus servidores para confiarles todas sus pertenencias. Al primero le dio cinco talentos, a otro le dio dos y al tercero solamente uno, a cada cual según su capacidad” (Mateo 25:14-15). Saber administrar, en lo terreno y en lo espiritual, lo que Dios nos da es un arte que se debe aprender día a día. Lo que se nos da es para el servicio de los que nos rodean, no para nosotros mismos.

“A los ojos de Dios, nada se recibe en vano. Como Jesús sugiere en la parábola de los talentos, cuanto nos ha sido confiado no debe enterrarse, sino ponerse en circulación y multiplicarse en el horizonte del Reino de Dios. Dicho horizonte es más amplio que el horizonte privado y no se refiere a un mundo utópico: el Reino de Dios, al que Jesús ha consagrado su vida, está cerca, porque está en medio de nosotros y sacude las configuraciones injustas del poder, las estructuras de pecado que excavan abismos entre pobres y ricos, entre privilegiados y descartados, entre amigos y enemigos. Cada talento, cada oportunidad, cada bien depositado en nuestras manos tiene un destino universal, una exigencia intrínseca de no ser retenido, sino redistribuido, para que la vida de todos sea mejor” (Papa León XIV, 28-03-2026). ©LPi
